

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

I am delighted to extend my heartfelt invitation to you for our annual highlight event of the year – the Annual Gala Dinner and Ball, set to take place on November 25th at Sinouk Garden. This year holds special significance as we celebrate the 70th anniversary of France-Lao diplomatic relations, and the theme for the evening is “Paris, Belle Epoque.” Prepare to be transported to the heart of Paris and indulge in all things French during this memorable occasion. Furthermore, the proceeds from this event will contribute to the “Empowering Women in the Workplace” initiative, a collaborative endeavor between our chamber, its members, and the EU aimed at providing free capacity-building training, workshops, and mentoring to support women employees and women entrepreneurs.

In the past quarter, we had the privilege of hosting the Lao Responsible Business Awards ceremony in collaboration with our partner chambers and institutions. This year, the focus was on recognizing and promoting practices, policies, and programs dedicated to enhancing workforce well-being. My sincere congratulations go out to all the shortlisted candidates and the well-deserving winners. You can find more information about some of our members who successfully made the cut this year.

Our commitment to advocacy continues to make strides. Within the Trade and Logistics advocacy group, our team has met with representatives from Thanaleng Dry Port and has now scheduled meetings with LITFA and the Ministry of Transportation to address specific concerns raised by our members. In the Hospitality advocacy group, our team met with the Ministry of Information, Culture, and Tourism regarding UNESCO heritage preservation in Luang Prabang and is planning to follow up with the provincial government directly. If you have any issues to raise, whether within or beyond the scope of these advocacy groups, please know that the doors of EuroCham are always open to you.

In September, we had the pleasure of hosting a networking cocktail event at Topsy Elephant, generously sponsored by Agroforex, one of our Platinum members actively engaged in the Forestry and Plantation advocacy working group. It was a wonderful opportunity to catchup informally with old and new members of the chamber while hearing this remarkable success story, rooted in responsible and ethical development. Be on the lookout for upcoming networking events in Vientiane and Luang Prabang in the months ahead and contact our team if you would like to host one.

Recently we have reintroduced our Breakfast Talks, offering our corporate members the platform to share new insights within their field of expertise to our members and network. Upcoming you may join one upcoming session on Digital Marketing and on Merge & Acquisition. Don't miss out on these informative opportunities, and feel free to contact our team if you wish to be speak in one yourself.

EuroCham has undergone significant transformation over the past year, marked by growth, enhanced advocacy efforts, and increased member engagement. We are eager to celebrate these successes with you and we look forward to seeing you all at Gala on November 25th!

EUROCHAM LAOS JOINED A MEETING WITH THE REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION, CULTURE, AND TOURISM OF LAO PDR

On October 12, our Deputy Executive Director, Mr. Enrico Bargnani, and our External Relations Officer, Mr. Phoutong Sorinxay, had the privilege of meeting with Dr. ThongLith LuangKhot, Deputy Director General of the Department of Heritage, and Mr. Paxa Nyordsavanh, Deputy-Head of the World Heritage Management Division representing the Ministry of Information, Culture, and Tourism of Lao PDR.

This meeting was a pivotal step in our ongoing advocacy efforts through EuroCham Laos “Hospitality Advocacy Working Group.” One of the main objectives of the group is to correctly preserve the UNESCO Heritage area of Luang Prabang while ensuring its sustainable economic growth as a tourism destination, for the benefit of the private hospitality sector and by effect, Lao society at large.

During this constructive meeting, we discussed specific points reported by EuroCham Laos Members for the correct preservation and promotion of the UNESCO heritage area. Dr. LuangKhot and Mr. Nyordsavanh were very open to hear the feedback from the private sector on this matter and offered us assistance in facilitating communication and alignment with the local provincial government. On this occasion we were also given early information on upcoming government projects aimed at promoting tourism and we offered our outmost availability to participate and support upcoming activities.

We believe this initial meeting was extremely positive, and we’re committed to fostering a strong partnership between the private sector and the government to safeguard Luang Prabang’s unique heritage and attract more visitors in the future. Our dedication to the advocacy group’s goals remains unwavering.

Stay tuned for updates, as EuroCham Laos will soon conduct follow-up meetings with the local Luang Prabang officials and follow up with the Hospitality Advocacy Working Group. Together, we’re making a difference in the future of Luang Prabang!

LAO RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS AWARDS 2023 – CELEBRATING WORKFORCE WELLBEING

LAO RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS AWARDS 2023 – CELEBRATING WORKFORCE WELLBEING

Angsana Maison Souvannaphoum and Animal Doctors International were two of the leading businesses to be recognised at the 2023 Lao Responsible Business Awards for their commitment to the wellbeing of their workforce.

Responsible Business Conduct (RBC), also known as Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and Environmental, Social and good corporate Governance (ESG) are internationally proven approaches that facilitate successful organizations. The Responsible Business Awards are designed to promote these practices in order to support the development of a successful Lao economy.

Hosted by the British Embassy in Laos, the awards ceremony took place on the evening of 21 September to celebrate and recognise businesses in Laos who have demonstrated a strong commitment to responsible business practices. Participants included representatives from the 17 shortlisted businesses, the Lao National Chambers of Commerce and Industry, international business chambers, embassies and business leaders from across the country.

First launched in 2021, the annual awards are the brainchild of the Canadian Embassy to Laos and Civitas Consulting. They have grown rapidly with additional partners coming on board each year to help organise, support and judge the awards. Canada continues to support this important initiative, as both sponsor and organiser.

Announcing the winners of the small business category (businesses with fewer than 25 employees), Sheng Lee, President of the Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry recognised ‘the great work and commitment the finalists had shown to investing in their people and demonstrating how this had had a positive influence on their business performance’. Animal Doctors International took first place in this category, with BIPO Services in second and The Green taking third.

ORGANIZERS

LAO RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS AWARDS 2023 – CELEBRATING WORKFORCE WELLBEING

In the large business category (for those with 25 or more staff), the competition was even more fierce with Ms. Ina Marčiulionytė, Ambassador and Head of the EU Delegation to Laos praising ‘the breadth of inspirational examples of good business practice and the commitment of the finalists to demonstrating how doing business well makes good business sense.’ The large business category was won by Angsana Maison Souvannaphoum, with this Luang Prabang based hotel demonstrating an impressive commitment to workforce wellbeing through their ‘8 Pillars of Wellbeing’ approach to staff engagement. Krungsri Leasing followed closely in second place, and Lao Toyota Services in third.

Organised by the Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (Austcham), the British Business Group in Laos and the European Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the awards are designed to raise the profile of those businesses who are committed to responsible business practices, to demonstrate that good business practice makes good business sense and to inspire more businesses to follow in the footsteps of these industry leaders.

The organisers would like to thank all the businesses that participated, the panel of judges who evaluated the array of applications received, and the following sponsors who made the event possible: the Embassies of Britain, Canada and the EU , Civitas Consulting and Austcham.

ADVOCACY: EUROCHAM LAOS VISITED THANALENG DRY PORT

On Friday, September 15, EuroCham Laos Deputy Executive Director, Mr. Enrico Bargnani, and the Chairman of the Trade and Logistics Advocacy Working Group, Mr. Kenneth Jorgensen, embarked on a visit to the Thanaleng Dry Port. They were graciously received by Mr. Adnan Ghani, Finance Director at TDP.

The primary objective of this meeting was to address concerns expressed by EuroCham Laos Trade and Logistics Advocacy Group Members regarding import and export border operations. This is a matter of paramount significance for Laos as it aspires to become a prominent logistics hub.

During this visit, our delegation gained invaluable firsthand insights into the operations at the Thanaleng Dry Port. They had the opportunity to engage in direct discussions with Mr. Ghani, who welcomed the conversation and was eager to address the private sector's concerns.

The establishment of a direct communication channel with Thanaleng Dry Port is a significant development. EuroCham Laos believes this initiative will play a pivotal role in facilitating ongoing feedback and optimizing operations, ultimately enhancing the overall business environment.

Stay tuned for upcoming updates in our Trade and Logistics Advocacy Working Group. Together, we are fully committed to shaping a more conducive and prosperous business landscape in Laos.

PARTNER EVENTS: FRANCE-LAO FEST

Twelve days of Festival to celebrate the dialogue between France and Laos

17 November 2023 will mark the opening of the second edition of the Festival France-Laos 2023, a special edition to mark the 70th anniversary of the Treaty of Friendship and Association between France and Laos. It will be marked by a series of fourteen exceptional events celebrating the diversity of cultural creation and the value of intercultural dialogue.

For this second edition, the choice was made to further strengthen the encounter between French and Laotian artists from different universes: classical, jazz or traditional musicians, jugglers, dancers, visual artists...

PARTNER EVENTS: FRANCE-LAO FEST

On 17 November at the National cultural Hall, the young and virtuoso French female pianists of Duo Ondine will open the Festival in collaboration with the talented Vientiane Chamber Orchestra. Together, they will explore a poetic repertoire of classical Lao and French masterpieces. Among the composers highlighted will be Ravel, Dukas and Saint-Saëns.

Then it's the turn of Samy Thiébault, saxophonist and composer in the world of jazz, to offer a concert in collaboration with traditional musicians from the DanXang school. Samy Thiébault is particularly well known for his willingness to collaborate with artists around the world and his many international tours. He is always keen to get involved in a variety of multicultural projects, working with choirs, traditional musicians or contemporary music artists.

Intercultural, cultural and artistic dialogue will continue throughout the Festival, with guest juggler Vincent de Lavenère working with the National College of Arts, Olivier Leduc Stein and Thidthavong exchanging their views on the art of weaving, Quentin Dupieux's peculiar cinema touch and events for all ages on the theme of environmental protection.

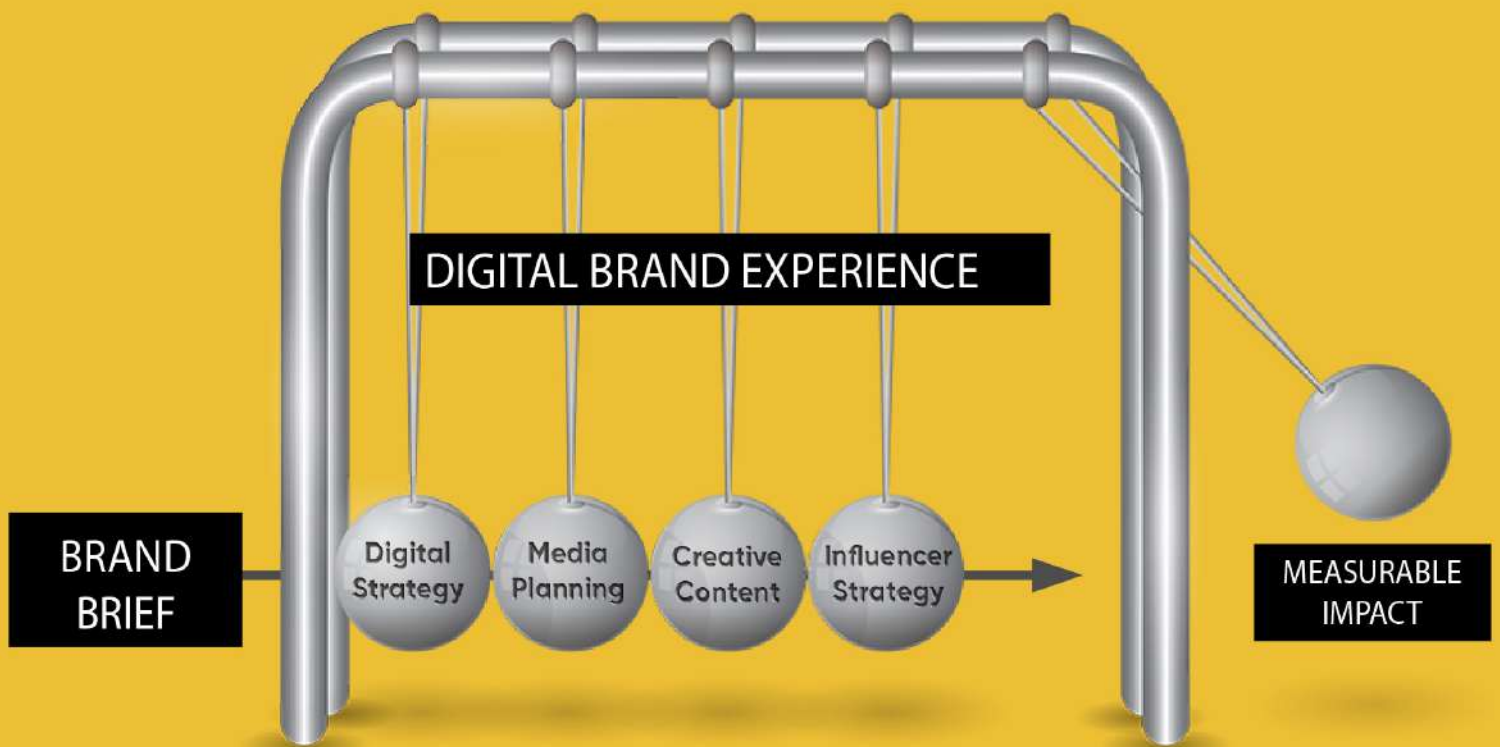

The Festival France-Laos becomes a place for discovery, learning, encounters, inspiration and mutual enrichment.

The closing ceremony of the Festival France-Laos 2023 will be marked by the performance of French dancer of Lao origin, Olé Khamchanla, who has made a major contribution to the introduction of contemporary dance in Laos. In "Cercle", a 25-minute solo, Olé Khamchanla explores the essence of his dance, blending his hip-hop roots with contemporary dance, as well as the traditional dances of Thailand and Laos. For over 13 years, he has been sharing this exploration with Lao dancers, and this new edition of the Festival France-Laos has some choreographic surprises in store for its visitors.

The full schedule of the Festival can be found on the Facebook page of Institut français du Laos: www.facebook.com/institut.francaisdulaos.

NEW RANGE ROVER SV 23MY REVEAL IN LAOS

In a captivating event that exuded opulence and innovation, Lao Land Rover showcased the epitome of luxury and power with the unveiling of the Range Rover SV 2023 on Wednesday, August 30th. The grand affair took place at the Lao Land Rover showroom in Vientiane Capital and was attended by an exclusive group of 20 distinguished guests.

The Range Rover SV 2023, a testament to automotive excellence, boasts an awe-inspiring blend of performance, luxury, and advanced engineering. An exquisite interpretation of Range Rover luxury and personalization, adding heightened craftsmanship and authentic materials to the class-leading capability, composure, and versatility of our iconic model. Outside, unique SV styling elements set Range Rover SV apart, while the SV Signature Suite option provides our pinnacle 4-seat passenger experience. The rear interior offers segment-leading space and versatility.

The 23-inch wheels not only enhance its commanding presence but also underscore its dynamic capabilities. Distinctive in every sense, these vehicles represent the pinnacle of automotive sophistication and are the only two of their kind within the Laos People's Democratic Republic, ensuring an aura of exclusivity that is unparalleled.

The event commenced with a grand opening ceremony, followed by an exquisite five-course dinner accompanied by bespoke cocktails. Amid the ambiance of luxury and elegance, the much-anticipated moment arrived as the Range Rover SV 2023 was presented to the enthusiastic audience. In a gesture of appreciation for their loyalty, the exclusive attendees – esteemed VVIP customers of Jaguar Land Rover Laos – were provided with the unique opportunity to secure their own Range Rover SV 2023 before the general public.

The unveiling of the Range Rover SV 2023 marks a significant milestone in the automotive industry, setting new standards of luxury, performance, and exclusivity. Lao Land Rover continues to redefine the boundaries of excellence, offering connoisseurs of automotive artistry an unmatched fusion of power, prestige, and innovation.

For those eager to experience the magnificence of the Range Rover SV firsthand, test drives can be scheduled at the Lao Range Rover showroom.

ECCIL AND MAG LAUNCH DONATION PROGRAMME TO SAVE LIVES AND REBUILD FUTURES IN KHAMMOUANE PROVINCE

We are thrilled to announce the launch of an impactful donation programme jointly initiated by the European Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Laos (ECCIL) and the Mines Advisory Group (MAG).

Lao PDR, the most heavily bombed country per capita, still faces the devastating impact of explosive remnants of war. Khammouane province, specifically targeted during US airstrikes, continues to bear the brunt of this legacy with more than 100,000,000 m2 of land waiting to be cleared.

Until today, unexploded bombs pose a constant threat to the lives and livelihoods of people across the country. The contamination in Khammouane prevents safe land access for communities, hindering their ability to engage in vital livelihood activities, including business development.

MAG has been working in Khammouane since 2004 clearing unexploded bombs and providing explosive ordnance risk education. With your support, MAG can continue their efforts to systematically clear more land, creating a safer environment for communities to thrive.

To give you an idea of what your donation may contribute to, we have calculated the historical average of what it costs to clear land in Laos:

Donation (USD)	Clearance of land (m2)
100	272
250	679
500	1,359
1,000	2,717
2,500	6,793

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Every member who donates to MAG, will receive an official certificate from ECCIL and MAG. In addition, members who donate $500 USD or more will have the exclusive opportunity to enjoy a complimentary guided tour at the MAG UXO Visitor Centre in Vientiane for themselves and their team. This engaging experience provides valuable insights into the impact of unexploded ordnance (UXO) and the vital work being done by MAG.

For members interested in contributing to MAG's efforts in Khammouane, we invite you to get in touch with ECCIL or directly contact MAG's Grant and Communications Manager, Isabelle Urumath, at isabelle.urumath@maginternational.org.

EUROCHAM LAOS HOSTED A MEETING WITH REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE LAO SME ASSOCIATION

On Monday, September 11, 2023, EuroCham Laos had the pleasure of hosting a meeting with representatives from the Lao SME Association. Our team, led by Executive Director Thiane Khamvongsa and Deputy Executive Director Enrico Bargnani, engaged in fruitful discussions with Vice-President Phouthong PHONVIXAY and Board Member Thilakone ANOUVONG from the Lao SME Association.

The primary focus of this meeting was to explore collaboration opportunities, with a view to working closely throughout the year. Our shared goal is to establish a platform that facilitates interaction between Lao and European companies and facilitate access in our respective markets.

One of the projects discussed was the idea of organizing briefings and training workshops for Lao companies to help reach the EU market. Additionally we also committed to promoting women entrepreneurship as part of our collaborative efforts.

This partnership represents a significant step toward fostering cooperation and growth between our organizations. Stay tuned for updates on our joint initiatives as we move forward together!
